THE LIGHT OF HOME.

The light of home, how bright it beams
When evening shades around us fall;
And from the lattice far its gleams
To love and rest and comfort call.
When wearied with the toils of day
And strife for glory, gold or fame,
How sweet to seek the quiet way,
Where loving lips will lisp our name,
Around the light of home!

When through the dark and stormy night
The wayward wanderer homeward flies,
How cheering is that twinkling light,
Which through the forest gloom he spies.
Is it the light of home. He feels
That loving hearts will greet him there,
And safely through his bosom steals
The joy and love that banish care,
Around the light of home.

The light of home—how still and sweet
It peeps from yonder cottage door,
The weary laborer to greet,
When the rough toils of day are o'er!
Sad is the soul that does not know
The blessings that it beams impart,
The cheerful hopes and joys that flow
And lighten up the heaviest heart,
Around the light of home.

CAPITAL FUN.

It was a little past twelve o'clock, and a merry group of boys were seated on the young grass, under the trees that shaded the Academy play grounds. A little later, and they would be scattered in every direction at their play; but first they must attend to the contents of well-filled pails and baskets, where their dinners are stored away.

"I should like to know," said Howard Colby, "why Joe Green never comes out here to eat his dinner with the rest of us, but always sneaks off somewhere till we all get through?"

"Guess he brings so many goodies, he is afraid we shall rob him," said another.

"Poo!" said Will Brown, throwing himself back on the grass, "more likely he doesn't bring anything at all. I heard my father say that the family must be badly pinched since Mr. Green was killed; and mother said she didn't pity them, for folks had no business to be poor and proud."

"Well," said Sam Merrill, "I know Mary Green asked my mother to have plain sewing to do; but then folks do that sometimes that aren't very poor."

"And Joe is wearing his winter clothes all this warm weather, and his pants are patched behind—I saw them," said Howard Colby, with a very complacent look at his new spring suit of light gray.

"I tell you what, boys," said Will Brown, "let's look to-morrow, and see what the old fellow does biting anyway. You know he is always in his seat by the time the first bell rings, and we can get a peep into his basket, and then be in season for roll-call."

The boys agreed to this, but Ned Collins, who had sat quietly eating his dinner, and taking no part in the conversation. Now, he simply remarked, as he brushed the crumbs from his lap, "I can't see what fun there will be in that, and it looks real mean and sneaking to me. I'm sure it is none of our business what Joe brings for dinner, or where he goes to eat it."

"You're always such a granny, Ned Collins," said Will Brown, contemptuously.—"You've got every one of your old aunt Sally's notions."

Ned could not bear to be laughed at, and it made him a little angry to hear his kind old aunt sneered at, but his eyes only flashed for a minute, and then he sprang up, shouting, "Hurrah, boys, for foot ball!" and in five minutes the whole play ground was in an uproar of fun and frolic.

The next morning, at the first stroke of the bell, a half dozen roguish faces peeped into the school room, and, sure enough, there was Joe Green, busy plying his pencil over the problems of the algebra lesson. It was but the work of an instant to hurry into the little clothes room, and soon the whole group was pressing around Will Brown as he held the mysterious basket in his hand. Among them, in spite of the remonstrance of yesterday, was Ned Collins, with his fine face fairly crimson with shame, or something else; we shall see.

"It is big enough to hold a day's rations for a regiment," said Henry Colby, as Will pulled out a nice white napkin. Next came a whole newspaper, a large one, too; and then, in the bottom of the basket, was ONE LITTLE COLD POTATO; that was all. Will held it up with a comical grimace, and the boys laughed, and cheered as loudly as they dared in the school house.

"See here," said Howard, "let's throw it away and fill the basket with coal and things; it will be such fun to see him open it."

The boys agreed, and the basket was soon filled, and the napkin placed carefully on the top, and before the bell commenced tolling they were on their way down stairs.

Ned Collins was the last to leave the room, and no sooner did the last disappear than, quick as a flash, he emptied the coal into the box again, replaced the paper, and half filled the basket, large as it was, with the contents of the bright tin pale that aunt Sally delighted to store with dainties for her darling's dinner. Ned was in his seat almost as soon as the rest, and all through the forenoon he looked and felt as guilty as the others, as he saw the sly looks and winks that were exchanged among them. Noon came, and there was the usual rush to the clothes room for dinner baskets; but instead of going out to the yard, the boys lingered about the door and hall. Straight by them marched Ned Collins, with his pail on his arm.

"Hello, Ned," said Sam Merrill, "where are you going now?"

"Home," said Ned, laughing, "I saw aunt Sally making a chicken pie this morning and I am going home to get some."

"Ask me to go, too," shouted Howard Colby; but just at that moment they saw Joe Green carrying his basket into the school room.

"I should think he'd suspect something," whispered Will Brown; "that coal must be awful heavy."

Joe disappeared in the school room, and the curious eyes that peered through the crack of the door were soon rewarded by seeing him open his basket.

"Hope his dinner won't be heavy on his stomach," whispered Howard Colby.

But apparently Joe only wished to get his paper to read, for he took it by the corner and pulled and it was fast. He looked in surprise, and then in a sort of bewildered way, took out a couple of aunt Sally's great crispy doughnuts, then one of the delicious round pies he had often seen in Ned's hands, bread and butter, and such honey as nobody's bees but her's ever made, and the plump white breast of a chicken. It was a dinner fit for a king; so poor Joe thought, and so the boys thought, as they peeped wonderingly from their hiding place. But Joe did not offer to taste it; he only sat there, and looked at it with a pale face, over which the tears began presently to flow very fast. Then he leaned his head on his desk, and Freddie Wilson, one of the smallest boys, whispered, "I guess he's praying;" so they all stole away to the play ground without speaking another word.

"That's some of Ned Collin's work," said Will Brown after a while. "It's just like him."

"I'm glad of it any way," said Sam Merrill; "I've felt as mean all the forenoon as if I had been robbing a hen roost. The Greens are not to blame for only having cold potatoes to eat, and I don't wonder that Joe didn't want us fellows to know it."

"I like Joe Green the best of any boy in school," said little Freddie Wilson, "and I think it was too bad to try and make fun of him."

"Nobody asked what you thought," said Will Brown, fiercely, "wait till your opinion is called for.

The little boy looked very meek, and ate his dinner in silence, but the fact was Will Brown began to fell uncomfortable.

"Father says Mr. Green was the bravest man in the company," said Sam Merrill, "and that he wouldn't have been killed, only he thought of every one else before himself."

"I tell you what," said good natured Tom Granger, "I move and second that we are all ashamed of ourselves; all in favor of this motion will signify it by giving three cheers for Ned Collins—there he comes this minute, brim full of chicken pie."

The boys sprang to their feet, and swinging their caps in the air, gave three hearty cheers for Ned Collins, and even Will Brown joined the chorus with as loud a hurrah as any of them. Sam Merrill explained the thing to Ned, and he only said in reply, "I've often heard aunt Sally say that 'it was a poor kind of fun that must be earned by hurting somebody's feelings,' and what aunt Sally says is almost always so."

"RECKON I couldn't drive a trade with you, Squire," said a genuine specimen of the Yankee pedler, as he stood at the door of a merchant in St. Louis.

"I reckon you calculate about right, for you can't no ways."

"Wall, I guess you needn't get huffy 'bout it. Now, here's a dozen genooine razor straps, wuth two dollars and a half, you may hev 'em for two dollars."

"I tell you I don't want any of your strops, so you may as well be going along."

"Wall, now, look here, Squire. I'll bet you twenty-five dollars that if you make me an offer for them 'ere strops, we'll have a trade yet."

"Done," said the merchant, and he staked the money. "Now," said he, chaffingly, "I'll give you sixpence for the strops."

"They're your'n!" said the Yankee, as he quietly pocketed the stakes. "But," continued he, after a little reflection, and with a burst of frankness, "I calculate a joke's a joke; and if you don't want them strops I'll trade back." The merchant looked brighter. "You're not so bad a chap after all," said he. "Here are your strops; give me the money." "There it is," said the Yankee, as he took the strops and handed back the sixpence. "A trade is a trade, and a bet is a bet. The next time you trade with that ere sixpence don't buy rasur-straps."

THAT WONDERFUL PRAYER.—Which? Why that one which your mother taught you. Did you ever think, short though it be, how much there is in it? Like a diamond in the crown of a queen, it unites a thousand sparkling gems in one.

It teaches all of us, every one of us, to look to God as our parent—"Our Father."

It prompts us to raise our thoughts and desires above the earth—"Who art in Heaven."

It tells us we must reverence our Heavenly Father—"Hallowed be thy name."

It breathes a missionary spirit—"Thy kingdom come."

And a submissive, obedient spirit—"Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven."

And a trusting spirit—"Give us this day our daily bread."

And a forgiving spirit—"Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

And a cautious spirit—"Lead us not into temptation."

And a dependent spirit—"But Deliver us from evil."

And last of all an adoring spirit—"For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen."

Now is it not both a wonderful and a beautiful prayer? Jesus, our dear Saviour, taught it, and who could better tell us how to pray to His Father and our Father, to His God and our God.

A HUMOROUS young man was driving a horse, which was in the habit of stopping at every house on the roadside. Passing a country tavern, where were collected together some dozen countrymen, the beast, as usual, ran opposite the door, and then stopped, spite of the young man, who applied his whip with all his might to drive the vicious horse on; the men on the porch commenced a hearty laugh, and some inquired if he would sell that horse.

"Yes," said the young man, "but I cannot recommend him, he once belonged to a butcher, and stops whenever he hears any calves bleat." The crowd retired to the bar in silence.

KEEP ON PRAYING.—"Do you think," I asked, "that the Lord will let me see in this the salvation of the souls for whom I pray?" "I cannot say as to that. When I was a child in the Sabbath school in the old country," she continued, "my faithful teacher used to say, "I have prayed too much for my class for one of them to be lost." I was a thoughtless girl at the time, and remember wondering at it, and thinking it a very self confident remark.—She was so sure. "I shall have them all," she would say, "I shall say to Christ at the judgment:—Here am I and the class thou hast given me." "And were they all converted?" I asked, "Yes; she did not live to see it, but my eyes have seen it—the last of the sixteen gathered into the fold."

AN exchange says: "Save all your newspapers, and when you get enough for the purpose, make a paste as for putting on wall paper, and lay them down, one by one, pasting them till your floor is covered, then let it dry; then lay another in the same way. When again dry get some wall paper of a suitable color, and paste all over it again with a good coat of varnish, and you have a good covering for your floor, which will wear as long as carpet, and look as well as oil cloth. This is a cheap method of covering bed rooms that are not much used."

AN inquisitive chap asked a soldier with an empty sleeve, how he lost his arm.

"In a thrashing machine," answered the soldier.

"Were you running the machine?"

"Well, no; Gen. Grant had charge."

BUFFALO girls are very saucy. "May I see you home?" enquired a lad of a lass at church. "You may see me any where you like, but you can't walk with me," was the pert response.

MATRIMONIAL ADVERTISEMENT.

A lady, who had no idea of looking for a husband, but with large proclivities for mischief and for fun, put a matrimonial advertisement in the Herald, with directions for answers to be sent to the Broadway Post-office. As the advertisement appealed to the practical appreciation, by assuming a neat little fortune, in addition to an agreeable person, seed of such temptation could not well fall idly upon such fertile bottom as is offered by the city of New York. On the first day that succeeded the advertisement, the lady received seventeen replies; on the second day, thirty two; and on the third, seventy-two—an extent and ardor of appreciation, which she was not prepared to expect.

Bewildered by the warm volume of adoration and entreaty which issued from this hymeneal magazine, the lady called to her aid five ladies as mischievous as herself. One pair of hands and one mind were, of course, quite unequally to the task of answering all; so the batch of billetdoux was divided equally among them, and each was to make an appointment with the writers on the following Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, on the lower side of the upstairs saloon of a certain popular restaurant in Broadway. Each of the ladies, moreover, who took the task in charge chose a different colored paper for replies. Finally it was agreed that the whole six should be present at the interview, and each should wear the exact costume prescribed for the inamorata whom the sighing swains would be there to see. On the other hand, the gentlemen were to appear in all the varieties of attire and position which female ingenuity and mischief could devise. One was requested to wear a blue coat and bright brass buttons; another to have his hair parted in the middle; one was to be eating a plate of pork and beans, which, said the ingenious writer who dictated it, "you can scarcely expect will be called for by any one else." Others were to be partaking of various dishes, or to place themselves in such attitudes and postures as were designated by the writer.

At four o'clock on the prescribed Saturday afternoon, every chair at every table on the lower side of the upstairs saloon, was filled with sleek looking and highly perfumed Leanders, all gazing into each other's faces, and each secretly cursing the luck which wedged him so closely out of the killing position and displays which he had been meditating ever since he got his note. And how the dishes smoked, and the wondering waiters flew! Even the perplexed landlord, amazed at this miraculous flow of business, was obliged to drop his own mutton-chop, and called out the entire force of the establishment to meet the clamorous if not threatening demands of gentlemen who feared they might not get their telegraphic plates of duck, or mess of pork and beans in time.

At length, the clash of sheen and the click of stiff skirts was heard coming up the stairs one minute after four, and an inamorata appeared, dressed in dark green, with deep fur cape, and abundant drooping lace. She was watered on the back of the head with an infinitesimal bonnet, and carried in her hand the magic drift of cambric, whose Shakspearean strawberries intimated that she was she. When she appeared the sensation was universal; the gentleman with the buff vest threw open his coat to the extreme, the gentleman in the blue coat and bright buttons, buttoned it entirely to his chin; the gentleman who was to lean backward frequently, commenced tilting like a Chinese mandarin; the gentleman with the pork and beans became more vociferous for more beans, while those who had duck, etc., were clamorous in complaining of the undue fulfilment of their orders.

Never was there such a clamor heard in that usually well regulated upstairs saloon—and by the bye, never did it subside more suddenly when a new brush of skirts was heard coming up the stairs. All the Lotharios were once more in position, when lo, another Cordelia, in all respects the reflex of the first, appeared bearing the rim of strawberries as a challenge in her hand, and sweeping with it like a Juno, for a seat near the location of the first. It is needless to say that the sensation was now extreme. Some of the gentlemen who had their hair parted in the middle began, however, to look less furiously at other gentlemen who had theirs parted in the same way, much as to say. "Well, there's one for each of us anyhow."

But most of the party seemed more troubled than before. A pause of some minutes succeeded before any new "appearance" took place, during which time the Lotharios were engaged in displaying their points to the best advantage; and some pulled out the various colored notes they had received, and either pretended to read them or laid them conspicuously on the table.

"There's one of my fellows with the blue note!" said myth No. 1, over her spoonful of soup, to myth No. 2.

"There's one of mine," said Cordelia the the second; "he's got a pink note."

"What do you think of Augustus, there, with the pork and beans before him, who is so pensively leaning his cheek upon his hand?" said myth the first.

But before the answer could be given, apparitions three and four appeared, and hard upon their heels came five or six. There was now perfect consternation on the lower side of the upstairs saloon of the fashionable restaurant in Broadway. The man on the tilt fell backward, and was shot under the table; there was a general feeling after hats, and a gathering up of loose handkerchiefs and canes.

All at once, after one of those short, sudden panics, which convey electric knowledge to the human mind, a general stampede took place, and the whole party, with more or less dignity—according to the natures and shapes they had assumed—made for the stairs and descended out of sight. It was several minutes before they could hand in their checks and pay the score, and during the time, the mischevious bevy with strawberry marked handkerchiefs took tull pay for their trouble, in a hearty laugh which they indulged in at the ludicrous tableau and exits they had just beheld, on the part of the gentlemen who were so sharp after the "snug little fortune," and whose motives were entirely confined to the object of getting a "congenial partner with whom they could quietly settle down in life."

TWO Irishmen caught in a storm took refuge under a tree. One was very well dressed, the other had an old suit. The well dressed Hibernian said to his comrade, "Pat, let us change coats. Mine is a bran new one, and I don't want it to be harmed by the rain. Yours is an old one, and the rain won't hurt it."

AN old lady on a train, not far from Lafayette, hearing the brakeman sing out "Eubank's Cut," sallied to the door and asked, "Is he hurt much?"

"MYNHEER, do you know what for we call our boy Hans?" "I do not, really." "Well, I tell. Der reason we call our boy Hans is—it ish his name."

It is generally believed that on the plea of self defence the Prince will be acquitted. The Court will meet on the 21st of March.

IN Baltimore, on Friday, William Cook, colored, aged 11 years, with two younger companions, amused themselves by playing hanging, in a loft belonging to the employer of Cook's father. The other boys left the place for a few minutes, and on returning found Cook had stepped or fallen and hanged himself. When found life was entirely extinct.

A DANGEROUS RIDE.—A few days ago, as the 9.30 A. M. train was on the way to Baltimore, the conductor, Captain Latimer noticed persons at different stations pointing under the car, but did not have an opportunity to make an examination until the train arrived at Annapolis Junction, after some nine stoppages had been made on the road. Here walking down the side of the train and looking closely under the cars, the conductor discovered a colored man lying on the truck, face downwards, with his feet resting against the brake bar, and hauled him out. After brushing his clothes, and stating that he had stowed himself under the cars to get to Baltimore, the free rider ran off.—Washington Star.

MOSQUITOS.—The eggs of the mosquito are laid in a bowl-shaped mass upon the surface of stagnant water by the mother fly. After hatching out they first become the "wiggle tails" or wriggling worms, that may be seen in the summer in any barrel of water that is exposed to the atmosphere for any length of time. Finally the "wiggle-tails" come to the surface, and the full-fledged mosquitos burst out of them, at first with very short, limp wings, which in very short time grow both in length and stiffness. The sexes then couple, and the above process is repeated again and again, probably several times in the course of the season.—It is a curious fact that the male mosquito, which may be known by its feathered antennæ, is physically incapable of sucking blood.

The mosquito is not an unmitigated pest. Although in the winged state the female sucks our blood and disturbs our rest, in the larva state the insect is decidedly beneficial by purifying stagnant water, that would otherwise breed malarious diseases.

Linnæus long ago showed that if you place two barrels full of stagnant water side by side, neither of them containing any "wiggle-tails," or other living animals, and cover one of them over with gauze, leaving the other one uncovered so that it will soon become full of "wiggle-tails" hatched out from the eggs deposited by the female mosquito, then the covered barrel will in a few weeks become very offensive, and the uncovered barrel will emit no impure and unsavory vapors.

GEN. George B. M'Clellan visited the New England fair, and while there an old gentleman from the rural districts, seizing both his hands, exclaimed, with sympathetic tears coursing down his sun browned cheeks; General I am glad to see! I am delighted to see! I have long desired to meet you! I always believed that you managed the army as well as you knew how! The General thanked him.

A CERTAIN Methodist preacher, happening to be in company with a good housewife, who prided herself upon making the best cakes, sauces, and fries, in the country, took occasion to reprimand what he conceived to be the spirit of gluttony in the good lady. She had been expatiating with a considerable degree of apparent relish, upon the comparative merits of butter, lard, dripping, etc., for shortening, for making cakes, paste, etc., when the preacher said that he could tell her what was better than anything she had mentioned. "What's that?" said she. "God's grace," replied the man of devotion. To which the good woman, who was rather hard of hearing, retorted; "Goose grease? O! Goose grease is very good, I know, but I always like butter a good deal better."

THE Border Damage Bill has not yet been reported from the House Committee on Ways and Means. It is said the Committee is divided on the subject, and thus far has not been able to secure a majority for or against a favorable report. It seems to be conceded that, once before the House, it will pass that body, and probably the Senate. A considerable clamor has been raised over this bill, with an astounding amount of misrepresentation and falsehood, and no little "buncomb." It is neither more nor less than a proposition to pay to farmers and others in the border counties the damages sustained by them by reason of the inability of the Government to protect our exposed frontier. The counties interested in the bill, during the War contributed their full share to the burthens and sacrifices incident to the Rebellion—gave their full quota of troops—paid their full share of taxes,—in common with other counties of the State. We have our orphaned children—dependent widows—maimed heroes and honored dead. But over and above this, it was our misfortune to be on an exposed frontier, unprotected by the State and National Governments, subject to Rebel raids and the tramp of armies; and it is for damages thus sustained over and above the balance of the State, that indemnity is asked. And why should it not be given? The duties of the citizen and the Government are reciprocal. The one owes allegiance, obedience and support—the other is equally bound to give protection, and failing to do so should make good the loss sustained by the citizen. When the enemy was knocking at our gates, threatening invasion and wide-spread ruin, and even Philadelphia was quaking over the uncertain future—the State calling for volunteers for the common defence—the border counties responded promptly to the emergency, by sending troops to Harrisburg. A company from Gettysburg was among the first to report at Harrisburg to the call of Gov. Curtin—and that while the enemy were pillaging their homes. More, these damages were sustained while thousands of heroes from the border counties were imperilling life and limb in the armies of the Union, and the bleeching bones of many of them on the battle-fields of the Republic attest their heroism.—A refusal to pay the claims, can find its only justification in an intensity of selfishness, which mocks at other people's calamities.

All the allegations about the claims being bought up by speculators—being made up of fraudulent items, &c., are mere bosh, without even a grain of truth. Adams county was a heavy sufferer, and we do not know to day of a single claim that has been assigned or that is not held bona fide by the claimant. The claims themselves have been adjudicated by sworn Commissioners appointed by the State, after patient and pains-taking examination of legal evidence. If there be justice in the Legislature, the bill will pass, notwithstanding the discreditable selfishness and vulgar clamor by which it has been assailed.

MR. WHITTEMORE, of South Carolina, whom the Committee of Investigation reported guilty of selling a Cadet appointment, resigned to avoid expulsion, last week. On Monday, Mr. Golloday, of Kentucky, and Mr. Deweese, of North Carolina, followed suit, sending in their resignations, it being understood that the Committee were prepared to report resolutions of expulsion in both cases. Golloday is a Democrat of the straightest sect. Other members of the present and previous Congresses, it is said, are implicated by the testimony before the Committee, which is still pursuing its investigations. The Somerset Herald, referring to the investigations now in progress, has the following significant paragraph:

"We have believed for some time, that a cadetship at West Point, belonging to the people of this Congressional district, and which one of their sons should now be enjoying, was improperly disposed of, and we call upon Hon. John Cessna to have this special committee inquire how it comes that Clarance A. Steadman, a native and resident of Massachusetts, was nominated and appointed a cadet from this the XVIth Congressional district of Penn., in the year of our Lord 1865, and what consideration, if any, was given for the appointment, and to whom it was paid. And while Mr. Cessna's hand is in, he may as well inquire who now holds the two naval cadetships from this district."

If we mistake not, the Hon. Alexander H. Coffroth was the member from the 16th district "in the year of our Lord 1865."

A RICH scene transpired in the lower house of Congress on Monday. It leaked out that the Free-traders were preparing to bring before the House a resolution declaring that no tariff bill should be passed except for revenue.—Gen. Schenck, of Ohio, who enjoys a joke, prepared a resolution and handed it to Mr. Spink, delegate from Dakota Territory, to be offered at the proper moment. On Monday Spink sprung his resolution in favor of such a tariff for revenue on foreign imports as will incidentally protect domestic manufactures, and, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burdens upon, and best promote and encourage, the great industrial interests of the country, and called the previous question. The Democrats immediately began to fillibuster, but the previous question being sustained, the roll was called on the adoption of the resolution, the Democrats generally voting against it. As the vote was being taken, it leaked out that Schenck had copied the resolution verbatim from the platform of the last National Democratic Convention, and the Democratic members were disowning their own bantling! It was carried however, yeas 107, nays 48.

ON Monday Mr. Cresswell, Postmaster General, sent a statement to Congress in relation to the franking privilege. He shows that during the month of January 666,901 free letters passed through the mails, the postage on which would have amounted to $117,399, and that on other matter sent would have been, if paid, $42,339. In the communication the Postmaster General repeats his former arguments for the total abolition of the franking privilege. The House bill to prevent the passage of all free matter through the mails after July 1, is still in the hands of the Senate Committee. It will probably be amended so as to reduce both letter and newspaper postage, and provide for free exchanges between publishers.

IN New York City, where Democracy rules in every department, the cost of the city administration approximates the civil expenditures of the Government of the United States.—Money is poured out like water in "fat jobs," on which favorites of the ring grow suddenly and enormously rich, the tax-payers being powerless. The New York Tribune has been dissecting the items which go to make up the enormous budget of expenditures, and finds that the legal department of the city alone costs annually $821,918, while the legal department of the United States, including the Supreme Court and District Courts, cost but $375,990—being an excess of $445,928. The salaries of the New York officials are largely in excess of those paid to similar officials by the United States. For instance, the notorious Judge McCunn, the favorite of the shoulder-hitters and bruisers, gets $10,000 a year, while Chief Justice Chase of the Supreme Court gets but $6,500. Even the Court Clerk in New York draws a salary equal to that of Justices of the Supreme Court. Here is a comparative table of salaries:

UNITED STATES—Rep.		NEW-YORK CITY—Dem.
Chief-Just. Chase,	$6,500	Dist. Attor'y Hall,	$15,000
Justice Clifford,	6,000	Counsel O'Gorman,	12,000
Justice Nelson,	6,000	Judge McCunn,	10,000
Justice Davis,	6,000	Judge Garvin,	10,000
Justice Swayne,	6,000	Judge Monell,	10,000
Justice Miller,	6,000	Clerk Sweeney,	6,000
Justice Field,	6,000	Justice Dowling,	6,500

This, of course, is exclusive of the "incidentals" which in New York City are understood to be legitimate perquisites of Court officials, and in comparison to which the regular salaries are "small potatoes." Some old-fashioned people have an idea that the highest legal talent of the nation is ordinarily represented in the Supreme Court of the United States. There is some mistake in this. The Democracy of New York either demand a higher order of legal talent, or recognize a higher standard of compensation in their employees. We guess it is the peculiar quality, rather than peculiar ability, in Court officials which suits New York City. Chief Justice Chase and his Associates wouldn't suit the New York ring, salary or no salary.

OUR Democratic cotemporaries have a good deal to say about the evidences of official misconduct developed in the investigations at Washington and Harrisburg, but withhold the all-important fact that these investigations were set on foot by the Republican majorities in the National and State Legislatures, and in so far furnish indubitable evidence of the determination of the Republican party to insist on honesty in official position. The National Administration has had a laborious task in its efforts to reform the wholesale corruption and demoralization bequeathed to the country by Andrew Johnson and his Democratic supporters; and it is in no wise strange that with the prestige of their fearful demoralization, occasional delinquencies should be detected among Republican officials. That the Republican majority are willing to hunt up and expose rascality wherever it exists, gives evidence of the essential integrity of the party. Who ever heard, on the other hand, of Democratic investigating Committees at work on Democratic officials. New York City and State, under Democratic rule, are confessedly hot-beds of official corruption, denounced as such by the press of that State. How comes it that we hear of no investigating committees in that direction?

THE Democracy have been making a good deal of capital out of a recent speech of Mr. Dawes, Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House, charging unnecessary extravagance in some of the Departments.—Mr. Dawes has gone to New Hampshire to stump that State in behalf of the Republican ticket. In a speech at Nashua, on Saturday, he maintained that the only hope of the nation, in securing integrity and economy in the National Administration, was in the maintenance of Republican ascendancy. He further announced that he had been charged by President Grant to tell the people that there shall be no ascending scale of public expenditures, but whenever and wherever the closest scrutiny shall disclose the possibility of cutting off a dollar, it shall be done. Since the election of President Grant, the national debt has been rapidly and steadily decreasing, near one hundred millions of dollars having been paid since March 4, and this notwithstanding the official stealing left as a legacy by the last administration.

MR. REVELS, the colored Senator from Mississippi, was admitted to his seat on Friday last, the Senate refusing to send his credentials to a Committee by a vote of 8 to 48. The ostensible objection was on the ground of alleged non-citizenship, Garrett Davis of Kentucky disvowing opposition on the ground of color; but in view of the fact that Revels has long been a citizen of the United States, voting in the State of Ohio, color was the real difficulty. Mr. Revels was conducted to the Speaker's chair by Senator Wilson, and after the administration of the oath was warmly congratulated by a number of Senators. This is the first colored man admitted to a seat in Congress. As the successor of Jeff. Davis, his case presents a singular practical commentary on the rebellion inaugurated to nationalize Slavery.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence by a grand international exhibition of the mechanical and industral arts at Philadelphia, in 1876. Committees of the Pennsylvania Legislature and Philadelphia Councils last week visited Washington to urge Congress to endorse the project. New York proposes a similar demonstration, but to come off in that city. As the Declaration was delivered in Philadelphia, there is an evident propriety in having the national celebration, whatever character it may assume, in that city.

ON Monday, in the U. S. Senate, Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment by punishing by fine or imprisonment any person who shall attempt to deter from registering or voting, being voted for or holding office, any citizen of the United States, which was referred to Judiciary Committee.

ALTHOUGH the lower house of Congress last week voted in favor of increasing the currency by $50,000,000, the Senate is just as decided against expansion. On Thursday the Senate adopted, without a division, a resolution offered by Mr. Williams, declaring that, in the opinion of the Senate, the existing volume of currency ought not to be increased.

THE New Hampshire State Election will take place on Tuesday next. There are four tickets in the field, and things a good deal mixed up.

ON Tuesday last, Mr. Parsons submitted a Bill in the State Legislature, authorizing the Governor, Attorney General and Auditor General to urge the payment of the damage claims of the border counties on the General Government. If these claims are to be paid at all, it must be done by the State. Mr. Parsons knows very well that the General Government cannot and will not pay, and hence his proposition is simply one to kill the damage bill without the manliness of a direct vote.

THE official U. States Treasury statement for the month of February shows a further reduction of the Public Debt of over $6,000,000. This is the more remarkable in view of the fact that $12,000,000 were required over and above ordinary expenses to meet interest falling due.

THE Cincinnati Bible School case will be carried on appeal to the Supreme Court.

JUDGE STRONG has been confirmed as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

VICE PRESIDENT COLFAX.—Vice President Colfax visited Richmond on the 22d of February, to deliver an address before the Odd Fellows of that city. He passed through Fredericksburg, where he was met by a Committee from Richmond. The Fredericksburg Herald says:

"The Vice President and his Secretary, Mr. Todd, accompanied by the committee and other gentlemen, drove to the Exchange Hotel, where a number of citizens at once called to pay their respects. After a slight luncheon Mr. Colfax, who is a Master Mason as well as an Odd Fellow, examined with much apparent interest the Masonic relics belonging to the Fredericksburg Lodge, which consisted of the two old charters, dating back respectively to 1758 and 1787, the old Bible on which Washington took the oaths required by Masons, and which bears date 1668, and the book of records, which shows that George Washington was raised to the degree of Master Mason in 1753."

A CURE FOR HOG CHOLERA.—Mr. George T. Mering, residing near Carrollton, Md., furnishes us with a recipe for hog cholera: Rub the throat well with tar; take one gill of whiskey, in which mix one ounce of the tincture of assafœtida; then mix one-fourth of a pound each of cinnamon bark, allspice and cloves, put them into half a gallon of water and boil until reduced to a quart; take the same quantity of this decoction and mix with the whiskey and assafœtida and give to each hog. Mr. M. says those hogs that were so much afflicted as not to be able to take the dose, he drenched twice, and a cure was made. When slightly sick, it was given in their slops. This recipe was given to Mr. Mering by a physician, and has been used several times successfully. Nearly all his hogs were sick; one died before the medicine was administered, and several were not able to walk, but after two or three doses they began to improve.

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.—The United States Pension Agents, under sanction of the Department at Washington, are now sending Government vouchers, carefully prepared, to each pensioner, enabling him to collect his own pension with the least possible trouble and expense. On the receipt of the voucher, the pensioner has only to sign it according to directions, and return by mail to the agent, when a check on the United States Treasury is immediately returned. A pensioner can thus remain at home and collect his own pension without paying an attorney or claim agent from two to fifteen dollars to "collect his pension" or "prepare his papers."

COLORED SCHOOLS AT THE SOUTH.—The number of negro schools at the South is 5,454 with 9,508 teachers and 256,353 pupils. Of these, 3,814 schools are regularly reported, with 204,253 scholars, of whom 192,227 were slaves. These negroes sustain wholly or in part 1,581 schools; they own 759 buildings, and the Bureau furnishes 772. In one year Virginia has gained 50 schools; North Carolina, 83 schools, with 8,209 pupils; Georgia, 105 schools, with 4,537 pupils; Mississippi, 67 schools, with 2,973 pupils; Tennessee, 95 schools, with 4,348 pupils. The other Southern States show increase, but not so much. Alabama is behind all.

A WASHINGTON despatch says that the delay in issuing the proclamation announcing the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment is caused by the fact that official notification from all the States which have adopted it has not been received.

A PREPARED estimate of the probable population of the United States on the 1st of June next, when the taking of the decennial census will be commenced, gives it as 40,800,000. This is an increase since 1860 of over 9,000,000.

A DESPATCH from Rome says that "the Pope's secularization of Pere Hyacinthe gives general satisfaction." The despatch means, we presume, that Pere Hyacinthe has been released from his obligations as a monk of the order of Carmelites—that he is no longer bound by monastic rules, and is now what is called a "secular priest."

A BILL passed the Lower House of the Missouri Legislature on Saturday almost unanimously, requiring the School Board to appropriate to every private school now or hereafter established in St. Louis $10 for each schoolar receiving free tuition in such school. It is said that if this bill becomes a law it can be made to almost entirely break up the public school system.

ON Friday afternoon the regular southwardbound passenger train on the Mississippi Central Railroad broke through a trestle bridge near Oxford. The entire train of four passenger cars fell through the broken bridge, and more than twenty persons were killed and as many wounded. Worn out and decayed wood work in the bridge was the cause of this horrible slaughter.

HYDROPHOBIA.—Robert Shoemaker, a well known druggist of Philadelphia, writes to the Germantown Telegraph that he believes that the root of elecampane, stewed in new milk, is a sure remedy for hydrophobia. Perhaps it would be better called a preventive. Take 1½ ounces of the root, bruised or sliced, and boil it in one pint of new milk until it is reduced to a half pint; when cold it is to be taken in one dose, after six hours fasting. Repeat the dose for several mornings.

FROM Harrisburg we have the pleasant piece of information that the expense of the Legislature this year will be at least one hundred thousand dollars less than last, which was forty thousand dollars less than the year previous. This is an improvement which the people of Pennsylvania hope to see go on for some years to come. It shows, too, that the Republican party is equal to the task of reforming itself—a thing which the Democratic party never could do in its best days.

AT a divorce trial, before Judge Sample, in Muncie, Indiana, last week, the principals in the suit, in relating how lovingly they used to live together when first married, became so affected over the recollections of their lost happiness that they began to cry. The Judge followed suit, the audience joined in, and handkerchiefs were in general demand. Judge Sample, when they had all got through crying, suggested to the husband and wife the propriety of trying to live happily together once more. After consultation they concluded to try it again, and the case was thus ended.

THE MONARCH.—This crack iron clad of the British Navy, which conveyed Peabody's remains across the ocean, is now lying at Annapolis, Md., and has been visited by a number of prominent officials.—Admiral Porter, who visited the vessel, says the Monarch is the greatest naval vessel afloat; that she can easily conquer any vessel belonging to our Navy. She can run down our iron-clads and monitors at sea. A fight with her "in shore" or in harbor might be more equally contested, for then she could not so readily use the thirty four foot iron ram, placed in her, some fifteen feet under water. He declares she is the greatest piece of naval architecture he has ever looked upon.

MINISTER MOTLEY telegraphs from London that the United States sloop of war Oneida had been sunk near Yokohama, Japan, in consequence of a collision with the British mail steamer Bombay, and that the officers and crew of the Oneida—one hundred and twenty men—went down in the vessel. It is feared that a number of officers belonging to other vessels of the Chinese Squadron were on board at the time of the disaster, and were also drowned. No particulars of the sad affair have been received at Washington.

LATER intelligence announces that the Oneida was run into by the steamer Bombay at midnight, crushing into and making a hole through which the interior of the Oneida was visible. The Oneida sank within ten minutes, discharging her guns as signals of distress; notwithstanding which the Bombay passed on without any effort to save life. A number of men were subsequently saved by passing boats. The Bombay is much censured, and a court martial will probably ensue.

THE LADIES' CLUB, of New York, recently changed their discussions from woman's suffrage to Hair preparations and Pimple Banishers. They declared that where nature had not endowed them with beauty, it was their right—yes, their duty—to seek it where they could. So they all voted that Magnolia Balm overcame Sallowness, Rough Skin and Ringmarks, and gave to the complexion a most distingue (Scrosian) and marble-like appearance (dangerous to men, no doubt;) and that Lyon's Kathairon made the Hair grew thick, soft and awful pretty, and moreover prevented it from turning gray. If the proprietors of these articles did not send the sisters an invoice, they are not smart. march 4–1m

THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY, have their line in successful operation from Richmond to the White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia—a distance of 227 miles—and the cash value of this completed and working portion of the road is estimated at at least $15,000,000. With a view to the prompt extension of the line through to the Ohio River, a further stretch of about 200 miles (of which extension a considerable portion has already been constructed), the Company have decided to offer, through their financial agents, Messrs. Fisk & Hatch, $15,000,000 of a Thirty-Year First Mortgage Loan, protected by the pledge of their entire road, property, franchises, &c., through from Richmond to the Ohio River. The mortgage will cover all the obligations of the Company, whose outstanding indebtedness consists of only $1,688,757 in miscellaneous bonds upon portions of the old Virginia Central Railroad (which now forms a part of the Chesapeake and Ohio), and a small obligation to the State of Virginia, for the payment of which provision has already been made in Virginia State Bonds. The outstanding Bonds of the Virginia Central Road will be provided for by a reservation of $2,000,000 of the First Mortgage Loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Company; and of the remaining $13,000,000 of this First Mortgage Loan, the Company will sell only an amount sufficient to complete the road to the Ohio River, perfect and improve the portion now in operation, and thoroughly equip the whole for the large, active, and very lucrative traffic which may be confidently looked for as the inevitable consequence of the opening of this important Trunk Line of communication between the seaboard and the Ohio River. The Bonds of the Loan are of the denomination of $1,000, $500 and $100 respectively, and are issued in three different forms: 1. Coupon Bonds, payable to bearer; 2. Registered Bonds, with Coupons attached; and 3. Registered Bonds, with Coupons detached, which forms are explained in the prospectus of the Loan which appears on another page of this paper. Both principal and interest of the Loan are made payable expressly in gold coin in the City of New York. The Bonds yield interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, in gold. They are offered for the present at 90 per cent. and accrued interest in currency, from Nov. 1, 1869. Secured as the Loan is by an absolute lien on the entire line of railroad from Richmond to the Ohio River, with its equipment and all other property, and by the additional guarantees afforded by the eminently responsible Board of Management and Financial Agency of the Company—including the names of some of our most successful business men, bankers, and railroad builders—the First Mortgage Bonds of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company can be commended as constituting a first class, reliable, and profitable form of investment.

FUNDS FOR SOLDIERS' ASYLUMS.—A bill, just passed by Congress, gives over five million dollars to the Asylum for Disabled Soldiers. Under act of February, 1864, the Institution has received $500,000 of the fund in the Treasury, created by the above act, which relieved all Quakers from military duty by their paying $300 to the Government. Of this fund there yet remains about $250,000, which goes directly to the Institution. The bill also gives to the Institution all the funds withheld, at the various branch rendezvous, from those soldiers who subsequently deserted or jumped the bounty, and who have never claimed their money, on account of said desertion, &c. This fund was created pursuant to General Order No. 205, issued December 27th, 1864, and there yet remains of it in the Treasury $893,000. The bill also orders that the Institution shall receive all the funds now in the Treasury which have been accumulated there under the acts of March, 1865, and March, 1866, fifth section of each, which provided for the retention of the pay of all deserters and all soldiers unclaimed for three years. This fund, the Second Comptroller states, is over $4,000,000. Thus it will be seen that this bill gives to the Institution altogether over $5,000,000, which its directors can invest in bonds, or in buildings, or what they may see fit.

NEGLECTED COUGHS AND COLDS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold," in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon preys upon the Lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, afford instant relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered which are good for nothing. Be sure to obtain the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold everywhere 1t

DRESS VERSUS MANNERS.

"This splendid dress was made for me,"
Cries Sugar Plum, the saucy cit;
Observers answer, "That may be,
But you were never made for it."

Manners signify more than dress, to be sure, but then he has a double advantage, who besides being mannerly, is also well dressed. To be well dressed, one has only to patronize the famous Oak Hall of Wanamaker & Brown. 1t

☞ The ancients proclaimed that Mermaids, Nmyphs, Naiads and the Graces had long, flowing tresses which made them envied by their sisters of earth. But they arose out of the sea foam or bathed in fountains reached by no mortal hands and kept their locks of dewy softness, dark and lustrious, and thus had no need of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, which is doing the same thing for thousands of people in our day.

☞ If you have a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, partial loss of the sense of smell, taste or hearing, eyes watering or weak, feel dull and stupid or debilitated, pain or pressure in the head, take cold easily, you may rest assured that you have the Catarrh. Thousands annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in consumption and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive or less understood by physicians. R. V. Pierce, M. D. of Buffalo, N. THE microscope shows the color of the hair due to a deposition of pigment in its substance. When the hair glands become enfeebled, this pigment fails.—One after another the hairs become white, or fall out, producing baldness. Baldness is easy to prevent but hard to cure. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR stops it: even restores the hair sometimes; always restores its color. Immediate renovation is at once visible: softness, freshness and the gloss of youth. This great ornament should be preserved since it can be by Ayer's Hair Vigor, which is beautifully clean and free from anything injurious to the hair. [Tribune, Spring-ville, N. Y. [Mar. 4—1t

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the organs of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says Brandreth's Pills cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended Brandreth's Pills as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord.—No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.—He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, March 4, 1870.

SALE.—The amount paid Jacob Stock to James Caldwell for a lot on West Middle street was $160, instead of $100.

NORMAL SCHOOL.—J. Howard Wert, Esq., County Superintendent, will open his Normal School on the 28th inst. See advertisement.

ELECTION.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Gettysburg Gas Company, to elect President and Managers, will be held in the Arbitration Room, on Monday evening next.

NEW FIRM.—By advertisement in to-day's paper, it will be seen that J. Marshal Cannon has taken into partnership Mr. W. N. Miller, an experienced Marble cutter, and the business will hereafter be conducted by the firm of Cannon & Miller.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—An exchange says: Sharpers are just now going about the country buying poultry, eggs, etc., at any price asked, and paying for the same in counterfeit greenbacks. Our farmers should be on the look out for such rascals.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. William Buehler, a merchant of Baltimore, Md., while driving a fractious horse from Greenvillage to Chambersburg, on Wednesday last, was thrown from the buggy, and injured pretty severely. His left ear was cut through, and his face badly bruised.—Valley Spirit.

REVIVAL.—We learn that a protracted meeting has been in progress for the last three weeks, in the church under the care of Rev. Dr. Hauer, at Abbottstown. Much interest exists in the community upon the subject of religion, and a number of interesting conversions have been reported. The servicies are well attended and the deepest solemnity pervades the audience.

GRAIN.—We are informed that at Hersh & Brother's Ware House, in New Oxford, they have been receiving grain of various kinds for the past few weeks, at the rate of from eight, ten and twelve hundred bushels per week. There is a continual bustle of loading and unloading from morning until night. Farmers must be preparing for the 1st of April, to meet demands.

CLOSED.—The religious meetings that commenced about six weeks ago, and were held every night, in the Methodist Church in New Oxford, closed last week. Quite a number were converted. The present pastor, Mr. Dixon, is one of those earnest, energetic, efficient men who is best satisfied when working. It is said to have been a good meeting, reviving the people of the different denominations of that town and country.

SAFE INVESTMENTS.—De Haven & Bro., Philadelphia, have acquired a national reputation as reliable Bankers and Dealers in Government Securities, Gold, Bonds, &c. We direct the attention of persons wishing to make investments to their card in our advertising columns.

We have made arrangements with De Haven & Bro. to furnish us with the most reliable quotations of the Gold & Bond market, which will appear weekly under the proper head.

POSTPONED.—Mr. Murdoch, who had been announced to read in Agricultural Hall on Monday evening last, telegraphed his inability to fill the engagement, being announced for a Reading in Philadelphia on Tuesday night. The engagement for Gettysburg was made under the impression that he could reach Philadelphia in time to fill both appointments. This being found impracticable, his Reading in Agricultural Hall has been fixed for the 28th inst.

EXHIBITION.—The colored folks repeated their recent Exhibition in Agricultural Hall on Tuesday night. The house was well filled, the receipts at 15 cents yielding over $60. The performances were rich and racy, evoking uproarious demonstrations. "Young America" seemed to have control of the hall and were evidently bent on having a good time. The audience, however, seemed to be in a good humor throughout and apparently enjoyed the fun.

☞ We have received from Messrs. Lee & Shepard, Boston, Mass., a copy of "The Bible and the School Fund," by Rev. Rufus W. Clark, D. D. It is an argument in favor of retaining the Bible in the Common Schools, the author holding its exclusion to be unwise and fatal to the ends of education. The main arguments in this work were first presented in a series of discourses preached by Dr. Clark in the First Reformed Church of Albany, N. Y. Paper covers 40 cents; cloth 75 cts.

PRESENTATION.—A pleasant incident came off on Tuesday night last, in "Gettys Lodge No. 124, I. O. O. F." A handsome edition of Pilgrim's Progress, costing $25, was presented, as a testimonial of regard, to Mr. JAMES MCCREARY, who for many years has faithfully discharged the duties of Secretary, Rev. W. R. H. Detrich making the presentation speech. The affair had been so delicately managed that that the worthy Secretary knew nothing of it, and was so much taken by surprise as to be unable to give expression to his feelings, beyond the acknowledgment of his thanks to the brethren for their kindness and the valuable gift so unexpectedly tendered to him.

THE WEATHER.—Nothing seems to be of more importance that the weather, if to speak oftener of it than of anything else be a test. Is any salutation more common than—"A fine day," or "a wet day," or "a cold day," or "a snowy day," or "a disagreeable day," or a "muddy day," as the case may be? But the weather all along has been most extraordinary. One day brings a furious rain storm, pausing only at intervals, and then closing with a gorgeous sunset. The next is probably ushered in by a snow storm, blustering and blowing at a furious rate, until night, when the clouds lift, showing a firmament radiant with star-lit glory. Sunday last as usual, we had rain, hail and snow; and so we go.

DONATION.—Some time ago we noticed a pleasant donation visit to Rev. A. J. Bender, of the Alleghany Circuit, Maryland, by members of his charge. We learn that on the evening of the 20th ult., he was the recipitent of another favor of the same kind. At an early hour his friends assembled at the Parsonage, and soon the house was filled to overflowing not only with people, but with a bountiful supply of refreshments for the inner man. After a pleasant exchange of greetings between pastor and people, the receipts of the evening were handed over, amounting to $131, with $25 more in substantials. Rev. Mr. Bender hails from Adams county, and his numerous friends will be glad to learn of the favorable impression he has made in his new field of labor.

BELL RINGERS.—The Peake Family of Bell Ringers gave two exhibitions in Agricultural Hall last week. The reputation of the troupe and novelty of making good music with bells, attracted fair houses. The musical part of the entertainment was very fine, Eddie Peak's skill and dexterity in manipulating the bells being specially admired. Of the balance of the performance the least said the better, being simply a re-hash of the low comedy and burlesque now so attractive in sensational theatres, and marring the entertainment by grating harshly on refined taste. "Jeppe" and his representations had better been out of the bills.—There was little wit, but any quantity of vulgar buffoonery, in this part of the performance.

READING BY PROF. S. J. KOONTZ.—Prof. S. J. Koontz will give a Reading in Agricultural Hall on Monday evening next, with selections from Shakspeare, Dickens, Poe, Longfellow, &c. Prof. K. is a native of Adams county, but graduated at Union College, New York, in 1864, with the highest honors of his class. He is a fine speaker, and has acquired a high reputation as an elocutionist. He has recently been giving a series of elocutionary readings and lectures at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, which are spoken of as rare intellectual treats. The Reformed Messenger, Philadelphia, (organ of the Reformed church,) says, "Prof. Koontz is a master of his art and worthy of the high testimonials he bears with him." Although our people have been favored with a number of Lectures and Readings this winter, we hope Prof. Koontz may have a full house. We have no doubt his Readings will prove a pleasant entertainment. Tickets 25 tents.

Mrs. Maude C. Cooke, of N. York city, the accomplished and highly talented dramatic reader, has kindly volunteered to favor the citizens of Gettysburg with the rendition of several of her celebrated pieces, on the above occasion. A scene from the Lady of Lyons will be given by the Professor, assisted by Mrs. Cooke in the character of Pauline.

"MUZZLE THAT DOG."—We hope our readers will not forget the Lecture by S. M. Hewlett, Esq., in Agricultural Hall, on Tuesday evening next, March 8. He comes on the invitation of "Gen. Reynolds Lodge, I. O. of G. T.," of this place. He is said to be a first-class lecturer, and is highly eulogized wherever he has spoken. The Williamsport (Pa.) Educational Record pronounces him in many respects superior to Gough. The N. York Herald pronounces him "a popular Colossus on the Rostrum." The Indianapolis Jounal says—"Such a lecture was never delivered in our city before, for humor, for satire, for eloquence, for power of declamation, for aptness of illustration. His side shaking anecdotes, his mimicry and mockery are inimitable." Tickets 25 cents—to be had at the stores of A. D. Buehler, J. L. Schick, and Fahnestock Bro.

INSTALLED.—The officers of "Gettysburg Lodge No. 344, I. O. G. T.," elected and installed for the ensuing year, are—P. W. C. T., W. H. Kain; W. C. T., G. W. Fortney; W. V. T., Miss Nancy White; W. S., W. E. Fisher; W. A. S., H. L. Glitsch; W. F. S., J. Wagner; W. T., Elliot Scott; W. C., A. Fastnacht; W. M., G. D. Stahley; W. I. G., Miss Clara Tate; W. Sentinel, George Unger; W. D. M., Miss Lizzie Stoever; W. R. S., Miss Katie Ziegler; W. L. S., Mrs. Mary Blessing.

[Communicated.

The thanks of Gettysburg Lodge. I. O. G. T., are due to the members of the Gettysburg Female Bible Society for the handsome copy of the Bible which they presented to the Lodge. May the Lord of all reward them richly, and bless their efforts for good.

IRWIN.—On the 1st inst., in Gettysburg, Mrs. E. J. Irwin, daughter of James A. Thompson, deceased, aged 43 years, 7 months and 10 days.

In the departure of Mrs. Irwin, we have new evidence of the sustaining power of faith in Christ. She was more than conqueror through His love. Though bound to this world by no common tie—the interests of her fatherless children—she cast all her "burden on the Lord." Her unfailing trust was in Him who is a "Father of the fatherless." As we listened to her testimony for Christ and to her experience of His comforting love, we thought of what Sir Humphrey Davy once said: "I envy no quality of mind or intellect—not genius, power, wit or fancy—but if I could choose, I should prefer a firm religious faith to every other blessing." God be praised that faith may cast its radiance even through the gloom and shadow of death. May her children treasure in their hearts, as things of greater worth than gold, those tender words of counsel, which they received from their dying mother; and heaven to them will assuredly be a brighter place than ever before, because their mother is there. God has already kept His promise to the fatherless, in gathering about them the aid and sympathies of kind friends, and they may ever have comfort in thought, "When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up." F.

LATSHAW.—On the 22d ult., at York Springs, Mr. Samuel Latshaw, aged 46 years, 4 months and 8 days.

OFFICE OF
FISK & HATCH,
BANKERS AND DEALERS IN GOVERNMENT SECURITIES,
No. 5 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK,

February 15th, 1870.

The remarkable success which attended our negotiation of the Loans of the CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY and the WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, and the popularity and credit which these Loans have maintained in the markets, both in this country and Europe, have shown that the First Mortgage Bonds of wisely located and honorably-managed Railroads are promptly recognized and readily taken as the most suitable, safe, and advantageous form of investment, yielding a more liberal income than can hereafter be derived from Government Bonds, and available to take their place.

Assured that, in the selection and negotiation of superior Railroad Loans, we are meeting a great public want, and rendering a valuable service—both to the holders of Capital and to those great National works of internal improvement whose intrinsic merit and substantial character entitle them to the use of Capital and the confidence of investors—we now offer with special confidence and satisfaction the

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
OF THE
Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, connecting the Atlantic coast and the magnificent harbors of the Chesapeake Bay with the Ohio River at a point of reliable navigation, and thus, with the entire Railroad system and water transportation of the great West and South-west, FORMS THE ADDITIONAL EAST AND WEST TRUNK LINE, so imperatively demanded for the accommodation of the immense and rapidly-growing transportation between the Atlantic seaboard and Europe on the one hand, and the great producing regions of the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys on the other.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS ROAD AS A NEW OUTLET FROM THE WEST TO THE SEA magnifies it into one of national consequence, and insures to it an extensive through traffic from the day of its completion; while, in the development of the extensive agricultural and mineral resources of Virginia and West Virginia, it possesses, along its own line, the elements of a large and profitable local business.

Thus the great interests, both general and local which demand the completion of the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD to the Ohio River, afford the surest guarantee of its success and value, and RENDER IT THE MOST IMPORTANT AND SUBSTANTIAL RAILROAD ENTERPRISE NOW IN PROGRESS IN THIS COUNTRY.

Its superiority as an East and West route, and the promise of an immense and profitable trade awaiting its completion, have drawn to it the attention and co-operation of prominent Capitalist and Railroad men of this City of sound judgment and known integrity, whose connection with it, together with that of eminent citizens and business men of Virginia and West Virginia, INSURES AN ENERGETIC, HONORABLE, AND SUCCESSFUL MANAGEMENT.

The Road is completed and in operation from Richmond to the celebrated White Sulphur Springs of West Virginia, 227 miles, and there remain but 200 miles (now partially constructed) to be completed, to carry it to the proposed terminus on the Ohio river at, or near, the mouth of the Big Sandy river, 150 miles above Cincinnati, and 350 miles below Pittsburg.

Lines are now projected or in progress through Ohio and Kentucky to this point, which will connect the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO WITH THE ENTIRE RAILROAD SYSTEMS OF THE WEST AND SOUTH-WEST, AND WITH THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Its valuable franchises and superior advantages will place the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY among the richest and most powerful and trustworthy corporations of the country; AND THERE EXISTS A PRESENT VALUE, IN COMPLETED ROAD AND WORK DONE, EQUAL TO THE ENTIRE AMOUNT OF THE MORTGAGE.

The details of the Loan have been arranged with special reference to the wants of all classes of investors, and combine the various features of convenience, safety, and protection against loss or fraud.

The Bonds are in denominations of $1000, $500, and $100.

They will be issued as Coupon Bonds, payable to Bearer, and may be held in that form; or

The Bond may be registered in the name of the owner, with the coupons remaining payable to bearer attached, the principal being then transferable only on the books of the Company, unless reassigned to bearer; or

The coupons may be detached and cancelled, the Bond made a permanent Registered Bond, transferable only on the books of the Company, and the interest made payable only to the registered owner or his attorney.

The three classes will be known respectively as:

1st. "COUPON BONDS PAYABLE TO BEARER."

2d. "REGISTERED BONDS WITH COUPONS ATTACHED."

3d. "REGISTERED BONDS WITH COUPONS DETACHED," and should be so designated by Correspondents in specifying the class of Bonds desired.

They have THIRTY YEARS to run from January 15, 1870, with interest at six per cent. per annum from November 1, 1869. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

The interest is payable in MAY and NOVEMBER, that it may take the place of that of the earlier issues of Five-Twenties, and suit the convenience of our friends who already hold Central and Western Pacific Bonds, with interest pryable in January and July, and who may desire, in making additional investments, to have their interest receivable at different seasons of the year.

The Loan is secured by a mortgage upon the entire Line of Road from Richmond to the Ohio River, with the equipment and all other property and appurtenances connected therewith.

A Sinking Fund of $100,000 per annum is provided for the redemption of the Bonds, to take effect one year after the completion of the Road.

The mortgage is for $15,000,000, of which $2,000,000 will be reserved and held in trust for the redemption of outstanding Bonds of the Virginia Central Railroad Company, now merged in the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO.

Of the remaining $13,000,000, a sufficient amount will be sold to complete the road to the Ohio river, perfect and improve the portion now in operation, and thoroughly equip the whole for a large and active traffic.

The present price is 90 and accrued interest.

A Loan so amply secured, so carefully guarded, and so certain hereafter to command a prominent place among the favorite securities in the markets, both of this Country and Europe, will be at once appreciated and quickly absorbed.

Very respectfully,

FISK & HATCH,
BANKERS.

P. S.—We have issued pamphlets containing full particulars, statistical details, maps, etc., which will be furnished upon application.

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine.—The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of POOR RUM, WHISKEY, PROOF SPIRITS, AND REFUSE LIQUORS, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, FREE FROM ALL ALCOHOLIC STIMULANTS.—They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For INFLAMMATORY and CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, and GOUT, DYSPEPSIA, or INDIGESTION, BILIOUS, REMITTENT, AND INTERMITTENT FEVERS, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, LIVER, KIDNEYS, and BLADDER, these BITTERS have been most successful. SUCH DISEASES are caused by VITIATED BLOOD, which is generally produced by derangement of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

Dr. A. L. SCOVILL, is the inventor of several medical preparations which have become very popular, and have been liberally used. Among his inventions are "Hall's Balsam for the lungs" and "Liverwort and Tar." For the past six years a better Lung remedy has been offered to the public. Read the following letter from Dr. SCOVILL referring to it:

Messrs. J. N. HARRIS & CO.,

Gents:—I make the following statement from a perfect conviction and knowledge of the benefits of ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM in curing the most deep-seated PULMONARY CONSUMPTION!—I have witnessed its effects on the young and on the old, and I truly say that it is by far the best expectorant remedy with which I am acquainted. For Coughs, and all the early stages of Lung complaints, I believe it to be a certain cure, and if every family would keep it by them, ready to administer upon the first appearance of disease about the Lungs, there would be very few cases of fatal consumption. It causes the phlegm and matter to raise, without irritating those delicate organs (the Lungs), and without producing constipation of the Bowels. It also gives strength to the system, stops the night-sweats, and changes all the morbid secretions to a healthy state.

Yours respectfully, A. L. SCOVILL.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

THE CANADIAN THISTLE.—We often allude to this the vilest pest the farmer has to contend against when it is allowed to get a foothold. We say allowed; because it cannot get a foothold where a farm is free of it except it has permission to do so from the occupier of the land. It usually visits him in purchased seeds, or it may steal over his lines from the lands of a careless neighbor; but in either event it is easy to dispatch it if taken in time, and the farmer who neglects to take it in time and destroy it root and branch, is disqualified to be the tiller of the soil, and besides commits an offence against the law, and community which the law is intended to protect. Where only a few thistles make their appearance, as they commonly do in patches, they should be totally removed, not a piece of root the size of a finger nail should be left or it will produce a shoot. Where they suddenly appear in large numbers they should be cut off close to the ground, and just before a rain the hollows in the stalks should be filled with common salt. One dose this way is enough. But should they exist in still larger numbers, cutting down with the scythe as fast as they appear, and frequent cultivation of the ground, will exterminate them.

CHARCOAL FOR HORSES' WIND.—Many years ago, I recollect a horse being brought into the yard of Joseph Bignal, a celebrated man for keeping hunters, at Croyden. The horse was very much affected in the wind, and could hardly move from distress. In a very few days this animal did its regular work as a hunter, with perfect ease and comfort to itself. Tar water was the cure. Tar is carbon, and charcoal is also carbon; charcoal in the powder is more easily given than tar water. I have tried it with most beneficial effect; and I think it stands to reason that the removal of noxious gases and flatulence from the stomach of the horse must improve his wind and condition.

Tar is frequently given with benefit in cases of chronic diseases of the respiratory organs; but its effects are totally different from those produced by charcoal (carbon.)

UNCONSCIOUS INFLUENCE OVER ANIMALS.—The horse is like his driver, and the dog like his master. A nervous, timorous man is almost sure to have a skittish horse, shying at anything, unsteady, and a runaway if he gets a chance. Many a cow is spoiled by the lack of patience and quietness of the milker, and the amount of milk depends more upon the milker than the pasturage. If a man is afraid of a horse the animal knows it before he goes to the stable. We have seen the most inoffensive cow in the herd so wrought upon by the nervousness of a greenhorn son of Erin, as to dexterously plant her foot in his breast and send him rolling heels over-head. A noisy, boisterous fellow about fattening stables will cause a serious loss in gain of flesh to the animals—so important is quiet to them when they are digesting their food.

FARMING.—Horrace Greely says, in his papers, entitled "What I Know of Farming," "I readily admit that shiftless farmers don't pay—that poor crops dont pay—that it is hard work to make money by farming without some capital—that frost, or hail, or drought, or floods, or insects, may blast the farmer's hopes after he has done his best to deserve and achieve success; but I insist that, as a general proposition, GOOD Farming DOES pay—that few pursuits afford as good a prospect, as full an insurance of reward for intelligent, energetic, persistent effort, as this does."

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will commence any one of their superior merits over all others, in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper.—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet in grain and four feet eight inches in grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to no other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye patent.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Deardorff, Sen.,	Henry Culp,
Ephraim Lady,	Henry King,
George Lady,	Elisha Penrose,
Jonathan Wisler,	David Stewart
James Mickley,	W. Ross White,
Daniel Settle,	J. J. Kerr,
John Bender,	Andrew Weikort,
John Eckert,	Wm. Bigham,
Wm. Funt,	John Guinn,
Cornelius Lott,	John N. Hoffman,
Wm. Gulden,	John N. Boyer,
Wm. Ross.

Also, WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKES, including the celebrated Brandt Rake, and Self-discharging Rakes. Also, PLOUGHS, FANNING MILLS, AND FARM IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Persons wishing to examine machines will find them at the warehouse of JOSEPH WIBLE & SONS, Gettysburg, Pa., or at the residence of the subscriber, 2 miles from Gettysburg, on the Harrisburg road. Persons wanting Circulars will address the subscriber, Gettysburg, Pa.

April 23.—t
WM. WIBLE, Agent.

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS'

REAPER & MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, and will excel any that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain.—It cuts lodged grain admirably, which is a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used as a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 5 feet 2 inches in grain; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Single Mower as well as a Combined Machine.

A full trial of the Machine can be had.

Also, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well-known BRANT RAKE, the best rakes ever introduced. We would also call your attention to the IRON DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong, steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made.

ALSO, THE KEELER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILLS, the old Bamborough Fan improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two cockle screens, and warranted to work perfectly.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel, or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike.
